

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ALLOCATION OF PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES (Decision-Making and Parenting Time)

These standard instructions are for informational purposes only and do not constitute legal advice about your case. If you choose to represent yourself, you are bound by the same rules and procedures as an attorney. When you file your case, the Court may provide you with a Case Management Order and other information about the procedures to be followed. Please review that information carefully.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- ◆ This information provides a guide to the forms necessary to have the Court allocate parental responsibilities if you are the parent of the children or if you are a non-parent.
- ◆ A Petition may be filed by a person other than a parent who has the physical care of the child(ren) for a period of six months or more if such action is commenced within six months of the termination of such physical care.
- ◆ A Petition may be filed by a person other than a parent for the child in the county where the child(ren) is/are permanent resident or where the child(ren) is/are found, but only if the child is not in the physical care of one of the child(ren)'s parents.
- ◆ The children must reside in Colorado for a minimum of six months prior to the filing date or since birth if under six months of age.
- ◆ Your case should be filed in the county where the children reside.
- ◆ An automatic temporary injunction will be in effect upon the filing of a Co-Petition, upon service of the Petition and Summons on the Respondent, or upon the signing of a Waiver and Acceptance of Service by the Respondent. The temporary injunction will be in effect until a Final Order is entered or further Court Order.
- ◆ If paternity of the children is an issue, review the Paternity Instructions (JDF 1500). Paternity must be determined prior to decisions regarding allocation of parental responsibilities.
- ◆ If you are married to the children's other parent, review the Dissolution or Legal Separation instructions with Children.
- ◆ If the parties agree on all the issues, they should file the case together as Petitioner and Co-Petitioner. If the parties do not agree on all the issues, the person filing the case is the Petitioner and the other party is named as the Respondent.

- Complete all sections in the caption.

Step 2: You are Ready to File Your Case with the Court.

Provide the Court with the Petition, Case Information Sheet, and Summons, if applicable. If the Petition has not been signed in the presence of a Notary Public, you will sign the Petition and other documents requiring signature verification before the Clerk at this time. If you and the other party are filing as Petitioner and Co-Petitioner, the Clerk or Notary Public must witness and verify both signatures.

- Pay the filing fee of $222.00.
- When you file your Petition, the Court may set an Initial Status Conference at the time of your filing and/or provide you with information on how and when to obtain future status conferences or hearing dates. Keep this information, as you may need it later.
- Review the Court's Case Management Order and other information to determine what you need to do next. Please read the information to inform you about the various procedures and timelines.

Step 3: Serve the Petition, Summons, and other documents provided by the Court, i.e. Case Management Order only if both parties did not file as Petitioner/Co-Petitioner.

It is important that you have the other party served as quickly as possible.

- Once you have filed your Petition, the Court will provide you with a signed summons to serve the other party (the Respondent).
- The Court may require you to provide a copy of the Case Management Order and other information to the other party.
- If you received a date for an Initial Status Conference, you must provide notice to all parties. This conference shall take place no later than 40 days from the filing of the Petition.
- Service options:

Waiver and Acceptance of Service:

- This is the easiest way to serve the other party. However, the other party must be willing to accept the Petition in order to use this method.
- Have the other party complete the Original Waiver and Acceptance of Service form on the back of the Summons.
- Make sure the other party signs and dates the Waiver and Acceptance of Service before a Court Clerk or Notary Public.
- File the signed original with the Court.

Personal Service:

- Select the Sheriff's Department, a private process server, or someone you know over the age of 18 who is not involved in this case and who knows the rules of service to serve the Respondent.
- Provide the process server with the Petition, Summons and Notice of Domestic Relations Initial Status Conference.
- The process server will need to return the completed return of service to the Court for filing, or return it to you to bring and file with the Court.

Service by Mail or Publication:

- If you do not know where the other party is you will need to use this method of service and should file these forms with the Court as soon as possible.
- You must make diligent efforts to locate the other party before selecting this option for service. See Instructions JDF 1300 for additional information regarding service by publication.
- Service by mail or publication shall be allowed only upon approval by the Court. If this process is necessary, complete forms JDF 1301 and 1302.

RESPONDENT FILES A RESPONSE

The Respondent may file a response to the Petition. The filing fee is $116.00. The purpose of the response is for the Respondent to state in writing if he/she agrees or disagrees with the information identified in the Petition, and mail a copy to the other party. All fees paid are non-refundable.

- The Response form is JDF 1420.
- The Respondent must file the original copy with the Court and mail a copy to the Petitioner.

- If the Court has provided you with specific information on how to schedule a status conference or hearing in a Case Management Order you received at the time of filing, follow those procedures.
- If the Court provided you with a date for a status conference when you filed your petition or at an initial status conference and both parties were not present, follow step 3 only in the Instructions (JDF 1122).

DETERMINE THE COURT'S PROCEDURE FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS

Temporary Orders are optional for parties. When you meet with the Family Court Facilitator, Magistrate, or Judge during an Initial Status Conference you should discuss this issue, or you may request the Court to make temporary decisions about allocation of parental responsibilities and child support by requesting a Temporary Orders Hearing. A Motion for Temporary Orders (JDF 1106) can not be filed without prior approval of the Court pursuant to Colorado Rule of Civil Procedure 16.2(c)(4)(B).

COURT HEARING

The Judge or Magistrate will review all documents filed and enter an Order to grant allocation of parental responsibilities, parenting time, child support, and other issues, if any.

- You may receive a copy of the Order for Allocation of Parental Responsibilities and Support Order following the hearing.
- Provide the Court with a self-addressed stamped envelope to receive a copy of the Orders. If a Court is mandatory e-file, self-addressed stamped envelopes may not be required.
- If your address has changed since you initially filed your case, please provide this information to the Court in writing.
